

Pray.com Event

Jan. 26-28, 2026

Commander James “Jimmy” May is a retired Navy SEAL with over 20 years of meaningful service. His personal awards include three Bronze stars (one with valor) and the Purple Heart. He holds a BS from Texas A&M in Construction Science and is an alumni of the Harvard Business School Program for Leadership Development. He is CEO of Sushi Assassin, an in-home sushi catering business and CEO of a non-profit organization called “Beyond the Brotherhood”, built to aid Navy SEALs in their transition from Active Duty to the civilian sector.

Jimmy does freelance leadership consulting and assists companies with off-site events in his spare time for very select organizations. His ability to relay the most intense situations and distill the lessons into actionable processes and policies that can be applied in your business and personal life has made him a sought after speaker and coach. He is fluent in Arabic, has a basic proficiency in Spanish, an avid spear fisherman, martial artist, amateur beekeeper and surfer.
